"It is a fine commentary on the state of "investigative reporting when long after this was written and much, much longer after Bennett was deposed and told this story, Jack Anderson had a big "scoop" on it from leaked official sources!

Until it was leaked it wasnot newsworthy!

His column of June 25, 1974, headed "CIA Front Man Knew of Watergate outs the not new in this excited language: (marked grafs. Check correspondence to see if it is this that Les Whitten said there was no time for.
